

MI-LAPS Hands-on Major Laparoscopic Cadaveric Liver Resection Course

Vesalius Clinical Training Unit, Bristol

22nd-23rd November, 2018

Course Convenor/Organiser:

Mr. Somaiah Aroori, Consultant HPB & Transplant Surgeon, Peninsula HPB Unit, University Hospital Plymouth NHS Trust, Plymouth PL6 8DH

Faculty:

- Mr. Robert Sutcliffe (QEH Birmingham)
- Mr. Ravi Marudanayagam (QEH Birmingham)
- Mr. Arjun Takhar (University Hospital Southampton)
- Mr. Reyad Abbadi (University Hospitals Bristol)
- Mr. Gourab Sen (Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals)
- Prof. Steve White (Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals)

Course Fee:

Consultants £650, Trainees (ST6 and above) £500, Nursing staff £150. There are 6 places available for each category. Course fee includes dinner on November 22nd at 19:00 at Aquila, Baldwin Street, Bristol, BS1 1NR (TBC)

Programme:

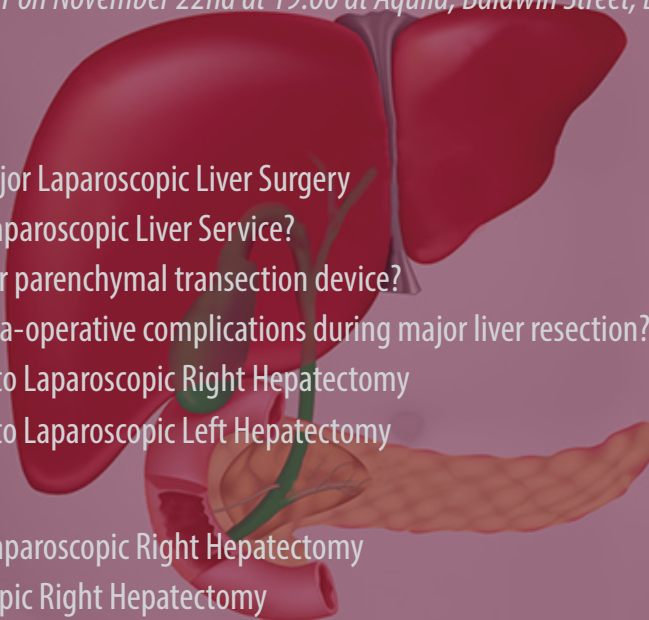

DAY 1

- The Evidence for Major Laparoscopic Liver Surgery
- How to Develop a Laparoscopic Liver Service?
- Is there an ideal liver parenchymal transection device?
- How to manage intra-operative complications during major liver resection?
- Stepwise approach to Laparoscopic Right Hepatectomy
- Stepwise approach to Laparoscopic Left Hepatectomy

DAY 2

- Demonstration of Laparoscopic Right Hepatectomy
- Hands on Laparoscopic Right Hepatectomy

To register please contact: Sue Coleman, e-mail : suecoleman1@nhs.net / tel: (+) 44 1752 792733 or Mr. Somaiah Aroori, email: s.aroori@nhs.net / tel: (+) 44 7837388342

Supported by

Medtronic

